1.1. New Mural Discussion

Becky Hawley addressed the Commission regarding a mock up of a potential mural design to be placed to the right of the Centennial mural across from Centennial Plaza. Design details were discussed, and all commissioners agreed that they liked the concept and design. The mural was requested by the building owner, but buy-in of the design and potential costs is needed. The Sandy Garden Club has also been contacted regarding this project. Further information will be provided to the Commission at a later date.

1.2. Public Art Forum Discussion

Commissioner Jordan discussed the upcoming Public Art Forum event, which will be held on February 28th and 29th at the Sandy Community Center. The purpose of the event is to solicit public input of the future of public art, and to meet the various arts commissioners. Invitations will go out on Facebook, in the Sandy Post, and the City Calendar.

MEDIA PRESENT:

1. WORK SESSION - 6:00 PM

1.1. Community Event Update

Commissioner Sandra Jordan provided an update on the upcoming two day Community Event targeted at learning what the community wants for local art. The event will take place on February 21 and 22, 2020 at the Community Center.

A more formal event will take place on April 18, 2020 to introduce the Commissioners to the public and work on goal setting for the upcoming year.

1.2. Thomas Mural Update

Commissioner Marcia Morrow provided a brief update on the Thomas Mural restoration. It's been a fun project and rewarding thus far.

1.3. 2020 Chalk Art Event Update

Commissioner Pamela Smithstead delivered an update on the 2020 Chalk Art Contest. The theme will be "Clean Water" and will be more of a fun party instead of a contest. The hope is to make the event more inviting. It will take place two weeks before the Sandy Mountain Festival, likely the last week of June or first week of July.

The Commission hopes that a local artist will be able to participate so that it will draw more people in. There were also discussion related to a band performing. The Sandy Area Chamber of Commerce will also be consulted to try to get donations from local businesses.

1.4. Vacancy Update

Tyler Deems, Finance Director, provided an update to the Commission regarding the current open position. The Commission would like to see this advertised in the Sandy Post as soon as possible.

1.5. Peaceful Vistas Plaque

Tyler Deems, Finance Director, provided the Commission with a draft of the context of the plaque that Commissioner Becky Hawley created. Discussion related to the plaque occurred.

COMMISSIONER ABSENT: Sandra Jordan , Commissioner and Pamela Smithsted, Commissioner

STAFF PRESENT: Carl Exner, Councilor and Tyler Deems, Finance Director

MEDIA PRESENT:

1. WORK SESSION - 6:00 PM

1.1. Arts Commission Duties

Commissioner Hawley addressed the Commission regarding the requirements of commission members. She was recently contacted by a community member who would like to get additional information on the Commission.

1.2. 1% for Art

*Discuss the concept of 1% for Art for all new development in City of Sandy.
Items to consider include, but are not limited to, the following:*

- Should it apply to public, private, or both types of new development?
- Should it apply to commercial, industrial, or both types of new development?
- How would it apply to parks?
- Could it be tied in with economic development?

The Commission discussed the concept of public art and the creation of the policy. There has not been any success in locating this policy, if there ever was one, for the City of Sandy.

Councilor Carl Exner provided additional information on the concept of the plan. He believes it would only apply to new public buildings, and would likely not include private development. Questions related to Sandy Style requirements and fake windows were asked. Councilor Exner suggested stakeholder meetings regarding the 1% for Art concept. Discussion related to the "Sandy Style" and potential additions of art or art substitutions occurred.

Information related to the upcoming Council Town Hall and Council Goal setting was discussed.

Commissioner Hawley provided comments related to the mural restoration.
