Phone Payments

If you wish to pay your utility bill by phone please call 1-866-233-8689. Have your account number ready! You can still sign up for autopay by filling out the form below and mailing it back.

Transit

Due to the popularity of the SAM Shopper Shuttle, the schedule has been adjusted to accommodate longer boarding times at the stops. Please check out the revised schedule at <https://www.ci.sandy.or.us/transit>. To better meet your needs a new, improved SAM Shopper Shuttle Route will be coming soon! Check our website or download the DoubleMap app for all the latest bus information (routes, bus arrival times, traffic updates, messages, etc.) at your fingertips!

Sandy Public Library Community Room

"Are you Two Weeks Ready?" A Plan for you and your family should disaster strike. Thursday, September 6, 6:30 pm
Sandy Public Library Community Room Are you prepared for an earthquake, wildfire, or other emergencies? Are you aware that the new recommendation is that you have a plan for home, work, travel, and school? Did you know that you need to be able to sustain yourself and your family for a minimum of 2 weeks? If you answered no to any of these questions you need this class.

Presenter, Kim Yamashita is currently the City Manager and Emergency Operations Manager for the City of Sandy. She has been the Police Chief for the City of Sandy since she came to our community in April of 2010 after 17 years as a sergeant with the City of Washougal and a Patrol Officer with Vancouver (WA) Police Department.

This program is part of our Mind Body Spirit; creating a vibrant adult life series.
