Coming this Fall new walking program offered at the Senior Center
"Walk with Ease" is a program developed for anyone who wants to increase physical activity to gain the benefits of exercise. This program is led by certified "Walk with Ease" instructors, includes health related topics, and a nutrition component.
The class meets M, W, F at 11:00am at the Senior Center. Class begins Monday, Sept. 18th.
For more information, please contact Tanya Richardson at trichardson@cityofsandy.com

Fermentation Class
Friday, September 29 - 6:30 pm
Sandy Public Library Community Room
Learn the basics on how to get started, why these foods are so important for your health, and how to incorporate them into your diet. We will focus on fermented vegetables (like kimchi, sauerkraut and pickles), kombucha, and other fizzy drinks.

Join Certified Holistic Nutritionist, Karen Morgan, and Fermenting and Health Enthusiast, Heidi McKay, as they guide you through the steps on how to make delicious and exciting fermented foods in your own home.

No registration needed for this event.
