

City of Sandy At Your Service

A Monthly Bulletin of Community News

April - "Mind"

Thursday, April 7 at 6:30 pm in the Sandy Library Community Room. Dr. Scott Burns will speak on the "Dynamic Geological History of Oregon with special emphasis on the region around Sandy".

Our state has an incredible geological history which has led to our very diverse natural beauty. Come hear Dr. Burns, who has taught for over 45 years, talk about volcanoes, earthquakes, floods, landslides and origin of lots of rocks and minerals in our state. It is a wonderful story, and at the end, he will focus on the geology of the Sandy area and Mt. Hood. Scott Burns is a Professor of Geology at Portland State University.

He specializes in environmental and engineering geology, geomorphology, soils, and Quaternary geology. He is the author of Cataclysms on the Columbia, the Great Missoula Floods.

May - "Body" Saturdays: May 14 & 28, 10 am. "MINDFUL Nature walks"
